

Short profile of Brigitte Kurz (CFO of Wolford AG)

Brigitte Kurz, born 1974, will serve as the new Chief Financial Officer as of August 1, 2017, with management responsibility for the areas of Finance, Investor Relations, Legal Affairs, IT and Human Resources. Her appointment runs through to April 30, 2021. She does not hold any supervisory board or other similar functions outside the company.

She has worked as Director Corporate Finance of the Wolford Group since November 2015, and was in charge of all financial issues relating to the Wolford Group.

From 2010 to 2015, Brigitte Kurz was CFO of DMG Mori Europe based in Zurich, where she was responsible for finance and controlling for a total of 12 European sales offices of the machine tool manufacturer.

She previously worked for four years at the Carcoustics Group, initially as Commercial Director for Carcoustics Austria GmbH in Vorarlberg and subsequently as Vice President Controlling of Carcoustics International in Leverkusen. There she was responsible for the worldwide controlling of the German automobile components supplier.

Born in Tyrol, Kurz has already been living in Vorarlberg for about 20 years. She holds a Master's degree in international business management from the Vorarlberg University of Applied Sciences in Dornbirn.
