

Short profile Ralf Polito (COO at Wolford AG)

Ralf Polito was appointed Wolford's Chief Operating Officer (COO) as of April 17, 2023.

In this function he is responsible for the Supply Chain & Production areas, Legal & Compliance, Investor Relations, IT & Digital and the Project Management Office.

Ralf Polito is an experienced Executive from the textile industry with 20 years of experience in finance as well as operations management. His first contact with fashion was at Hugo Boss, before he held various global management positions at Triumph International in Switzerland and India as well as at ETERNA in Germany.

As Global Head of Supply Chain, Finance and Project Management at Triumph, Ralf Polito also brings extensive experience in the transformation and reorganization of a global company. By consolidating global logistics as well as in-house production, he has succeeded in improving gross margins by almost 10%.

At Triumph, he was also able to claim the annual Triumph Global Leadership Award twice.

As COO at ETERNA, Ralf Polito was responsible for in-house production, logistics, and product development, and was also in charge of third-party business with various Asian and European suppliers.

In addition to a diploma in International Business, Ralf Polito holds an MBA in Project Management. He is also an IHK-certified IFRS accountant.