

Curriculum Vitae

Sebastian Yun Wu

BS, EMBA (Fudan-BI Norwegian Business School)
Private Equity/Intercultural Management
14 Years in Private Equity/Investment
8 Years with Fosun
2 Years as Supervisory Board Member of Tom Tailor

Sebastian Yun Wu is a seasoned Private Equity executive, with more than 14 years of Investment and multinational working experience. He is currently Deputy General Manager of the Board Office and Secretary General of Overseas Operation Committee of Fosun International, as well as Supervisory Board Member of the German fashion brand Tom Tailor.

Mr. Wu is now responsible for coordinating Fosun's overseas portfolio companies and spends most of his time in Europe. Before that, he was part of the teams founded 2 mega private equity investment companies in China, Sumin Investment and CMIG, where he served as the head of strategic investment and the board office. He was also the business assistant to the Co-chairman and CEO of Fosun international from 2011 to 2015. Before his time with Fosun, he was the chief correspondent of Wenhui Daily in Central Europe.

Mr. Wu has fulfilled his duties in different roles from HR, strategic planning, investment and operation, which grants him a comprehensive view of running companies in different industries. During his years serving on the supervisory board of Tom Tailor he also managed to secure a crucial refinancing round and new China partner for Tom Tailor. He speaks fluent German, English and French.

Mr. Wu holds a Bachelor's Degree of German Study from Fudan University of Shanghai and an Executive MBA degree from the BI Norwegian Business School in Oslo.